Please describe your person-centered approach <sup>1</sup> in the concept development process; how did you involve the individuals for whom you provide services?	Input was solicited from individuals supported in the context of their regular home/roommate meetings.
Does the concept address unmet service needs or service disparities? If so, how?	No
Barriers to compliance with the HCBS rules and/or project implementation	Specialized Residential Facilities are licensed and we must balance regulatory compliance with Person Centered Thinking and Planning which is not always congruent.
Narrative/description of the project. Identify which HCBS federal requirements are currently out of compliance; include justification for funding request	The project described below would address Federal Requirements #1, #4, and #5 where we are not completely in compliance. This proposal focuses on providing choices over daily routine, community integration opportunities, and decision making using Person Centered Thinking (PCT). CPES California proposes to embrace, embed, and fully implement the principles and tools of Person Centered Thinking using a two pronged approach: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Identify two staff to become certified Person Centered Thinking Trainers.</li> <li>2) Implement a Leaders and Coaches model by identifying and training coaches and implementing monthly meetings to sustain the practice of PCT.</li> </ol>

<sup>1</sup> A person-centered approach emphasizes what is important to the individual who receives services and focuses on personal preferences, satisfaction, and choice of supports in accessing the full benefits of community living.
